INFORMATIVE DIGEST/POLICY STATEMENT OVERVIEW

Public Resources Code 25350 et seq. vests the Energy Commission with the authority to establish regulations requiring the petroleum industry to report production, inventory, shipments and prices of crude oil, motor fuels and motor fuel blending components.

The amendments and modifications to title 20, California Code of Regulations Section 1361 et seq. will clarify statutory requirements that require the Energy Commission to collect information on production, inventory, shipments and prices for crude oil, motor fuels and motor fuel blending components in California. This information will allow the State to monitor the supply and price of transportation fuels and prepare timely reports on disruptions that may have an adverse impact on the California economy. This information will also allow the Energy Commission to assess the causes and conditions of price spikes, supply disruptions with respect to California's transportation fuel supplies, as directed by PRC 25356. There is comparable federal regulation that requires the crude oil and petroleum products industry to report similar information. However, the federal reporting requirements do not include state-specific information. California has a unique fuel specification that is not reflected in the federal reports. Thus, there is no comparable federal regulation where this information can be collected.

LOCAL MANDATES

The Energy Commission has determined that the proposed action imposes no mandate upon local agencies or school districts.

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

Costs to any local agency or school district that must be reimbursed in accordance with Government Code §§ 17500 through 17630: None

Costs or savings to any state agency: The costs related to this rulemaking are estimated by the Energy Commission to be less than $100,000.

Other non-discretionary costs or savings imposed on local agencies: None

Costs or savings in federal funding to the state: None

EFFECT ON HOUSING COSTS

The Energy Commission has made an initial determination that the proposed action will have no significant effect on housing costs.

COSTS IMPACTS ON REPRESENTATIVE PRIVATE PERSONS OR BUSINESSES

The Energy Commission is not aware of any costs impacts that a representative private person would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action. The Energy Commission is aware that a representative business will incur modest costs in compliance with the proposed action that will be offset by elimination of some existing reporting requirements.

SIGNIFICANT STATEWIDE ADVERSE IMPACT ON BUSINESS

The Energy Commission has initially determined that the proposed action will not have a significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states.

EFFECT ON SMALL BUSINESSES

The Energy Commission has determined that the proposed action will not have a significant statewide adverse impact on small businesses.

ASSESSMENT OF EFFECTS ON JOB AND/OR BUSINESS CREATION, ELIMINATION OR EXPANSION

The Energy Commission has determined that the proposed action amendments will have no effect on the creation of new jobs, the elimination of existing jobs or businesses within California, or the expansion of businesses currently doing business in California.

CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVES

Because of confidentiality and antitrust regulations this information is not made available to the public in any form and the Energy Commission has determined that there is no reasonable alternative. No alternative has been identified and brought to the attention of the Energy Commission more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed that is as effective, as and less burdensome, to affected private persons and businesses than the proposed regulatory action.
